City of Hudson,
Summit County

City of Streetsboro,
Portage County

Size

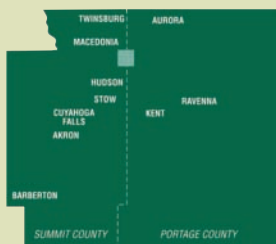

140 acres

Features

3,750 feet of Tinker's Creek
mainstem

4,500 feet of tributary to Tinker's Creek

Over 45 acres of Category 2
and 3 wetlands

Located within the cities of Hudson (Summit County) and Streetsboro (Portage County), the approximately 140-acre Tinker's Creek Headwaters property is one of the area's highest conservation priorities. The natural resources at this property are staggering – over 3,700 linear feet of Tinker's Creek mainstem, over 4,500 linear feet of tributary to Tinker's Creek, and over 45 acres of high-quality wetlands and vernal pools. The Tinker's Creek Headwaters property also consists of approximately 90 acres of old-growth, hardwood uplands (primarily a mixed oak forest), and riparian corridor.

In addition to the property's aquatic and ecological benefits, it will also further the effort to create a contiguous natural corridor and future trail connection from Hudson Springs Park, to Tinker's Creek State Park, and on to Liberty Park in Twinsburg Township.
