

HISTORIC LOWER BIG CREEK VALLEY TOUR

Saturday, May 18, 2013

1:00–2:30 PM

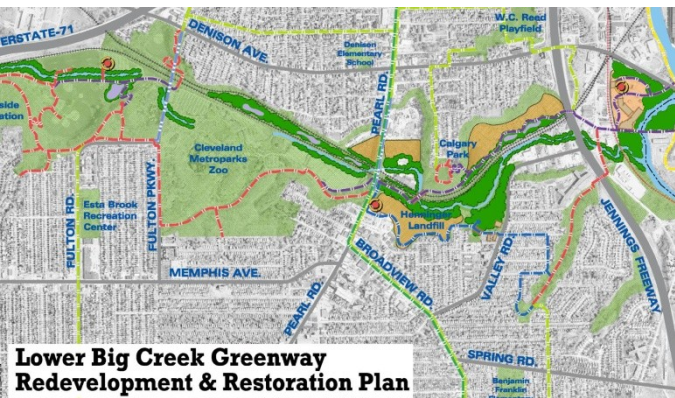

Discover Big Creek's history hidden under the Pearl Road (Brooklyn-Brighton) Bridge.

Learn about two of Cleveland's earliest settlements and adjoining industry.

View historic bridge remnants, examine architecture, review historic full-color maps.

Learn about the Greenway Plan for the valley. Refreshments.

Meet in the parking lot behind Sal's Restaurant, 3850 Pearl Road, north end of the bridge near Denison.

To RSVP or for more information, contact Bob Gardin at bgardin@friendsofbigcreek.org or 216-269-6472.

Sponsored by Friends of Big Creek & Old Brooklyn Community Development Corp.

Friends of Big Creek community-based greenway advocacy and watershed stewardship • non-profit 501(c)(3)

P.O. Box 609272 • Cleveland, Ohio 44109

friendsofbigcreek.org

